Judge Scott Will Probably Render His Decision This Morning.

HAS SPENT LIFE IN PRISON

Hiter, Now Awaiting Trial for Cutting Wires, An Old Jailbird.

Judge Scott, of Henrico county, is expected this morning to render a decision upon the motion of Mr. Edgar English, counsel for Austin Johnson, the negro condemned to die on July 20th for criminal assault, that a new trial be allowed upon the grounds of evidence afterwards discovered. The decision was expected yesterday, but owing to pressure of business it was not given,

Austin Johnson is confined in a cell ith Joe Langley, a negro who is to be indicted by the grand jury Monday upon a charge of murder. To Johnson there one chance in a hundred of escaping death on the gallows, while to his companion there are many things in his In the event that Judge Scott new trial there is still the probfavor. In the event that Junge Scott grants a new trial there is still the probability of a second conviction for me crime, and with the conviction there is but one penalty to be imposed—death.

Johnson thus far has proven an enigma to the officers of the county. He maintains his innocence, and at the same time does not discuss the case or his approaching death. Relatives of the man, who have been admitted to the jail, have falled to make him talk. Through the days he walks backward and forth in his cell, paying little attention to his surroundings, and never entering a conversation with his fellow-prisoner. Not a word does he utter to his keeper. His wants are few, and he makes them known in monosyllables. His replica to questions are likewise in this manner.

Like a caged animal he walks the floor

a caged animal he walks the floor of the cell. The terrible strain upon him has left its marks. The negro to-day is thin, hollow-eyed and pale, yet withal apparently resigned to his fate.

Many Years in Prison.

James Hiter, a negro now confined in the Henrico county jail upon a charge of having cut the wires of the Virginia Pas-senger and Power Company on the Seven Pines line, is a man of about fifty years, and more than half of that time has been spont behind urison thars. Twice has he and more than half of that time has been spent behind prison bars. Twice has he served sentences in the Virginia penitentiary, and on occasions too numerous to mention he has been sentenced to juli for thirty, sixty, ninety days, and even as high as twelve months. He is a thief of the first water, and it has appeared just as hard for him to refrain from stealing as it is to keep a duck out of

For the Grand Jury.

The Henrico Circuit Court will convene for the next term Monday, and there are several criminal cases for the considera-tion of the grand jury. At least two of the cases may result in the infliction of the death penalty.

Samuel King, a negro, is to be indicted for criminal assault upon his sixteen-old stepdaughter. King lives near year-old stepdaughter. King lives near Glen Allen.

Joe Langley, who is now confined in the same cell with Austin Johnson, is charged with murdering a woman more that they will be sent to the grand jury negro struck the woman with a brick and that death resulted about a month afterwards. Langley left the city, and after being away for about a year it was learned that he was in Norfolk. Deputy learned that he was in Norfolk. Deputy Sheriff Frayser went after him and brought him back to Richmond.

Other cases to come before the grand jury will be William H. Pleasants, for cutting a woman, C. Bagliby, for breaking and entering a house; Parroll Pleasants, an old chicken thief, and Tom Francioni, for highway robbery.

The two negroes, Hiter and Dagger, are to be tried Saturday, and it is probable to be tried Saturday, and it is probable that they will be sent to the agrand jury and indictments found against them nex

Following are the members of the grand jury: Messrs, W. B. Grover, M. H. Shirk, Wyatt Price, Frank Hess, George Watt, Jr., Valentine Hechler, Jr., A. E. Sheppard, F. B. Traylor, H. C. Beattle, Sam C. Duval, John T. Jones and Major Burwell,

A Probable Candidate.

A rimor apparently well-grounded is in circulation in Henrico county that at the next election Mr. W. B. Frayser, now chairman of the Board of Supervisors of the county, will be a candidate for the position of commissioner of revenue. Mr. Frayser is one of the best known men in the county, and if he decides definitely to enter the race, he will be a candidate to be recked with.

Store Robbed.

Store Robbed.

Robbers entered the store of Mr. Andrew Anderson, in Fulton, Monday night, and succeeded in getting away with more than a dozen boxes of good cigars and several bottles of soda water. There is little clue to the thieves.

With the Justice.

James Wright didn't pay a fine of $2.50 assessed against him by 'Equire Angle yesterday, and as a result he will spend a vacation in jail.

Evans Lawson, a thirteen-year-old white boy for trespassing on the Chesangeake and Ohlo Bailroad, was held in jail until the authorities of other cities could be notified.

County Superintendent Jackson Davis, who was recently elected to this position, defeated Superintendent Fussell, who had held the position for about twenty years, was at the court house yesterday. Mr. Davis takes charge of the position to which he was elected on next Saturday.

A Decree Right to the Point in Ex-Judge Sutton's Case.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WILMINGTON, N. C., June 28 .- Judge Purnell to-day issued a decree in the matter of ex-Judgo Sutton, United States commissioner at Fayetteville, against whom charges of a serious nature had been lodged.

The decree of the court, as proclaimed to-day, completely exonerates the exjudge, and Judge Purnell dispenses some straight talk bearing upon the bringing of charges under conditions like those surrounding the present charges. The decree in part is as follows: "It further appears by the number of decree in part is as follows:

"It further appears by the number of letters received applying for the appointment of commissioner at Fayetteville the charges against respondent are based to a great extent, if not entirely, on the desire of others to secure the appointment of some other person as United States commissioner at Fayetteville.

"The court is informed there is a factional fight in Fayetteville, and this matter grows out of the same, but it declines peremtorily to take any part in such factional fight or to lend uself, directly or indirectly, to the design or ends of either of such factors. Parties desiring to make complaint against any officer of this court must do so in writing, openly and not covertly or clandestinely. The court will act on none made except as indicated they must be. The first is manly, the other course is cowardly."
